

INTRODUCTION

Message From Our Manager

As we welcome the winter edition of our Silverleigh newsletter, I am delighted to reflect on what has been a truly heartwarming and joyful season within our home. From festive celebrations at Christmas and New Year to a beautiful Valentine's Day filled with love and laughter, the past few months have been rich with special moments. We have also had the privilege of celebrating remarkable milestones, including a very special 100th birthday, and coming together for meaningful occasions such as Dignity Day.

Despite the cold weather outside, Silverleigh has remained warm, vibrant, and full of life - a true testament to the wonderful residents, families, and dedicated staff who make our community so special.

CELEBRATIONS & EVENTS

Valentine's Day at Silverleigh

Love was truly in the air this Valentine's Day at Silverleigh. Our home was beautifully decorated in shades of pink and red as residents and staff came together for a joyful celebration filled with laughter, music, and sweet treats. The day was made even more special as we raised a glass to one of our wonderful residents and her devoted husband, who celebrated an incredible 73 years of marriage. It was a heartwarming reminder of enduring love and the precious memories that continue to inspire us all.

A Very Special 100th Birthday Celebration

February brought with it a remarkable milestone as we celebrated the 100th birthday of one of our treasured residents. Reaching a century is an extraordinary achievement, and it was a privilege for everyone at Silverleigh to share in such a momentous occasion.

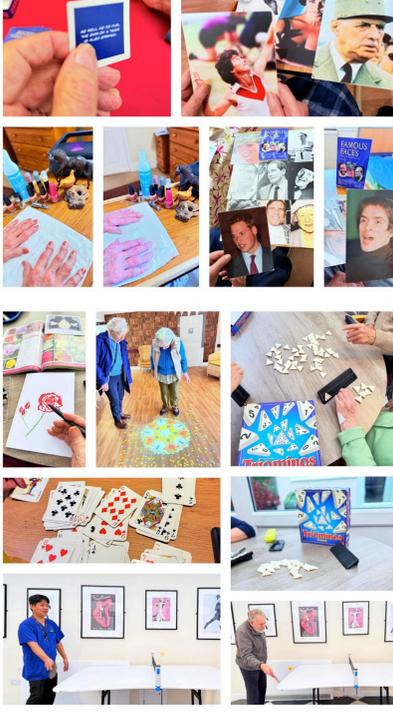

WINTER ACTIVITIES

Keeping Active and Busy

Although the winter months have been cold and wet, life inside Silverleigh has remained warm, lively, and full of activity. We have been focusing on keeping spirits high by staying active, engaged, and connected with one another.

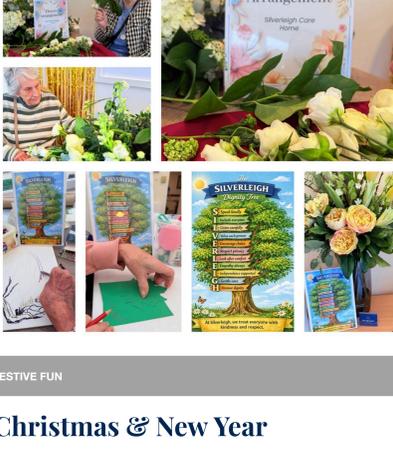

Our days are thoughtfully planned with a variety of activities designed to suit all interests and abilities. From gentle exercise sessions and engaging games to music, crafts, and meaningful everyday tasks, there are plenty of opportunities to lift our moods and stimulate our minds. Maintaining a comforting daily routine helps everyone feel settled and supported, while shared activities strengthen friendships and create a wonderful sense of community. No matter what the weather brings, there is always something happening indoors to keep smiles shining and connections growing stronger.

Dignity Day

Dignity Day was a meaningful and reflective occasion for residents and staff alike. To mark the day, we created a beautiful "Dignity Tree," which proudly represents the values we live by every day - respect, compassion, choice, and individuality.

Residents thoughtfully enjoyed contributing to this special display, adding their thoughts and decorations to make it personal and inspiring. The finished tree now stands as a visual reminder of the importance of treating one another with kindness and respect, and of the supportive environment we strive to nurture at Silverleigh.

FESTIVE FUN

Christmas & New Year

We enjoyed a wonderful Christmas and New Year at Silverleigh, filled with joy and togetherness. The festive season included special events, outings, and entertainment that brought plenty of cheer to the home.

Local choir groups visited to sing carols and festive favourites, and we welcomed visitors with freshly baked mince pies and a little Baileys. It was a warm and happy time, shared with friends and loved ones.
